O R D E R

1) By order, dated 01/02/2010 this Commission has directed the PIO to furnish the information to the appellant regarding part I in proper manner, within 8 days from the date of receipt of the said order. In the same order the appellant was given opportunity to prove that the information, as was initially furnished, was false, incomplete , incorrect, misleading etc.

2) As it was noticed from the records that no compliance report was filed a fresh notice was issued to the parties. Based on the said notice the PIO appeared and filed a copy of the information as was furnished alongwith the track consignment of the postal office showing that the item is delivered.

3) The appellant has failed to appear to deny having received that information or to prove that the information, as was furnished, was false, incorrect and misleading etc.

4) It appears the appellant is not interested in proceeding with the matter. Considering above circumstances, we hold the information, as was sought, is furnished and that the appellant does not intend to persuade her claim of falsity and incorrectness of the information.

The proceedings are therefore closed. Notify the parties.

Pronounced in the open hearing.

Proceedings closed.
