ORDER

The following order is passed in the above appeal on 11/04/2017 in the course of proceedings.

“Called before CIC

Appellant absent. PIO shri Patil and Shri Chawdikar, for Respondent 2 & 3 present.

It is seen from the records that inspite of service the Appellant has remain absent continuously. The PIO has filed reply with a submission that the information as was sought by the Appellant has been furnished. Copy of information so furnished is also found on record along with the reply. The Appellant being absent there is no rebuttal of the said statement. The Appellant has also not substantiated other grounds raised in the appeal.

Considering the above circumstances I find no reason to proceed with the present Appeal as the information is furnished.

In the result the appeal stands disposed as no further intervention of the Commission is required. Other reliefs as prayed are dismissed. Intimate the parties.”
