was not an information under the act. As per the judgment of Hon'ble High Court. He submitted the information, which according to PIO could be dispensed. Accordingly he filed the information in duplicate.

- 3) The appellant continuously remained absent and hence no version on behalf of appellant could be heard. After the PIO has furnished the information several opportunities were given to appellant to verify and report whether the information as sought is furnished. In spite of fresh notice to collect information and report the appellant failed to remain present.
- 4) From the above conduct of appellant it appears that the appellant has no interest in getting the information now and has no say against the version or the PIO. In the circumstances we hold that the information is duly furnished and that the appellant is not interested in pursuing his appeal.
- 5) In view of the above, the appeal is required to be disposed. Accordingly the appeal stands dismissed as not pressed.
