O R D E R

The complainant herein has sought the information from the respondent viz Don Bosco College Panaji Goa. The Complainant herein has also filed another complaint before this Commission being Complaint No.45/2016 against same authority. In the said complaint the Respondent PIO who is the same PIO in the present complaint and the same Public Authority as involved herein , it was contended that the respondent is not the public authority. This commission after considering the arguments in the said complaint No.45/2016 has held that the public authority involved herein viz Don Bosco College , Panaji, is not the Public Authority.

In the present complaint also the complainant has a grievance against the same respondent which is not a public authority. Being so, the present complaint which is not against the public authority is not maintainable under the Right to Information Act 2005. Consequently, this complaint stands dismissed as not maintainable.
