ORDER
(08-07-2010)

1. The Complainant, Nimesia alias N. Francisco Faleiro, has preferred this Complaint praying that the Opponent be directed to furnish the information as per request dated 23/11/2009 free of charge and for initiating penalty proceeding against the Opponent.

2. The gist of the Complainant case is that the Complainant, vide his application dated 23/11/2009 requested certain information under Right to Information Act 2005 ('RTI' Act for short). That the information consisted in the nature of certified copy of advertisement and Publication issued in the newspaper in respect of certain tender notice. That part of the information was furnished and some information was not furnished. Since information has not been furnished even after lapse of 2 months, Complainant preferred the present Complaint.

3. The Opponent resists the Complaint and their say is on record. It is the case of the Opponent that tender notice copy was provided to the Complainant vide letter dated 01/12/2009 and the copies of letter in publication of tender notice in newspaper was provided to the Complainant by letter dated 14/12//2009. However, some newspaper publication cuttings were not found and the same are being traced and as such the same could not be furnished.

4. Heard the Complainant, Opponent was absent though he informed the court about his inability. I have perused the records. It is seen that the Complainant by letter dated 23/11/2009 sought certain information. It is seen that part of the information has been furnished. However, some information could not be furnished as the same was being traced. During arguments Complainant submits that full information has been received and she is satisfied with the same and that she has no grievance whatsoever.

5. In view of the above no further intervention of this Commission is required as the information is furnished. Hence I pass the following order:-

No intervention of this Commission is required.

The Complaint is disposed off.

Pronounced in the Commission on this 8th day of July 2010.
