(31.01.2011)

1. The Appellant, Shri Subodh S. Sawant, has filed the present Appeal praying for a direction to quash and set aside the order of deemed refusal passed by First Appellate Authority and also of Public Information Officer; for direction to the Respondents to grant the information to the Appellant for penalty under section 20 of the R.T.I. Act and for disciplinary action against Respondent No. 2 as per the provisions of section 20 for persistently not granting the information to the Appellant and also on Respondent No. 1.

2. The brief facts leading to the present appeal are as under:- That the Appellant is a Mahajan/Mazania of Shree Saptakoteshwar Devasthan, situated at Deulwada, Naroa, Bicholim-Goa. That Shree Saptakoteshwar is the family deity of the Appellant and his ancestors. That the Appellant has been elected as Attorney for two terms of three years each. It is the case of the Appellant that, by application dated 07.05.2008, he sought certain information under Right to Information Act, 2005 (R.T.I. Act for short) from the Public Information Officer ('P.I.O.)/Respondent No. 1. That no information was furnished within the stipulated period. The Appellant being aggrieved by the refusal of the P.I.O. to furnish the information preferred the First Appeal before the Respondent No. 2 as per the provisions of the R.T.I. Act. However, the First Appellate Authority has not even fixed a date for hearing and this has been done deliberately and with malafide intention. Being aggrieved the Appellant has preferred the present Appeal on the grounds as set out fully in the Memo of Appeal.

3. The Respondents resist the Appeal and the reply dated 07.10.2008 and 18.11.2008 are on record. It is the case of Respondent No. 1 that as per the information furnished by Shri Sadanand S. Gad, ex-Devasthan Clerk, the documents of which copies were sought are not available in the Devasthan Section of the office. That as directed by First Appellate Authority the Appellant has been already informed vide letter dated 08.08.2008 which was sent under certificate of posting.

It is further the case of the Respondent No. 1 that on receipt of the copy of the application dated 07.05.2008 from the First Appellate Authority Shri Sadanand P. Gad, Ex-Devasthan Clerk was directed to furnish the information sought by the Appellant. That Shri Sadanand P. Gad, Ex-Devasthan Clerk who was having custody of all Devasthan records, informed the undersigned vide his endorsement dated 30.07.2008 that "No such document is available in the Devasthan section of this office". The applicant was, therefore, informed accordingly vide letter dated 08.08.2008 i.e. within the time limit stipulated by the First Appellate Authority. That thereafter during search in the files Ex-Devasthan Clerk said that Receipt is located and the same is available to be supplied to the applicant. That the applicant has been informed accordingly vide letter dated 12.11.2008. It is the case of the Respondent No. 1 that reply to the applicant was sent based on the information furnished by Shri Sadanand P. Gad, Ex-Devasthan Clerk. That in view of the above the Show Cause be withdrawn and proposed penalty and disciplinary proceedings be waived.

4. Heard the Appellant/Adv. S. S. Sawant and Adv. K. L. Bhagat for Respondent No. 1. Both sides advanced arguments of their respective case. According to Adv. Bhagat information is already furnished.

5. I have carefully gone through the records of the case and also considered the arguments advanced by the parties. The point that arises for my consideration is whether the relief prayed is to be granted or not?

First it is to be seen whether the information is furnished or not?

During the course of his arguments Adv. Shri S. S. Sawant submitted that the information has been fully furnished. Since information is furnished no intervention of this Commission is required on this count.

6. Now it is to be seen whether there is any delay in furnishing the information.

According to the Appellant there is delay. Whereas according to Adv. Shri Bhagat there is absolutely no delay. It is seen that application seeking information is dated 07.05.2008. Reply is dated 08.08.2008. It is seen that First Appeal is preferred on 02.07.2008.

It is to be noted here that R.T.I. Act, in general, is a time bound programme between the Administration and the citizen requesting information and every step will have to be completed within the time for presentation of request and disposal of the same, presentation of First Appeal and disposal by First Appellate Authority.

Again it is to be noted that First Appellate Authority ought to give opportunity of hearing to the parties. Principles of natural justice require that parties be heard. Even though the first Appellate Authority is not covered by the penal provisions yet the appeals should be disposed in time. Hope the First Appellate Authority bears the same in mind.

Coming to the case at hand apparently there is some delay. However, Public Information Officer and the said ex-Devasthan Clerk, Shri Sadanand Gad should be given an opportunity to explain the same in the factual backdrop of this case.

7. In view of the above, since information is furnished no further intervention of this Commission is required. Since there is delay the Respondent No. 1 and Shri Sadanand Gad are to be heard on the same. Hence, I pass the following Order:

ORDER

Appeal is partly allowed. Since information is furnished no intervention of this Commission is required.

Issue notice under section 20(1) of the R.T.I. Act to Respondent No. 1/Public Information Officer and ex-Devasthan Clerk, Sadanand Gad, to show cause why penal action should not be taken against him for causing delay in furnishing information. The explanation, if any, should reach the Commission on or before 23.02.2011. Public Information Officer/Respondent No. 1 and Shri Sadanand Gad shall appear for hearing.

Further enquiry posted on 23.02.2011 at 10:30a.m.

The Appeal is accordingly disposed off.

Pronounced in the Commission on this 31st day of January, 2011.
