ORDER
(31/01/2012)

1. By Judgement and Order dated 19/8/2011, this Commission gave an opportunity to the appellants to prove that information furnished is incomplete, misleading, false etc. Accordingly inquiry was posted on 30/09/2011 at 10.30 am. On 30/09/2011 appellants were absent. However respondent was present. Inquiry was posted on 11/11/2011. Again on 11/11/2011 appellants were absent and respondent was present still one chance was given to the appellants and inquiry was posted on 13/12/2011. Again on 13/12/2011 appellants were absent. Respondent was present. Fresh notice was issued to the appellants to remain present on 20/01/2012. On 20/01/2012 again appellant remained absent. Still one chance was given to them and inquiry was posted on 31/01/2012.

2. On 31/01/2012 appellants are absent. Various opportunities were given to the appellants. However it appears the appellants are not interested in proceeding with the inquiry. It is seen that information has been furnished. In any case since appellants are not coming to prove as per the order dated 19/8/2011, there is no point in keeping the inquiry pending. Hence I pass the following order.

ORDER

The inquiry proceeding is dropped.

The proceedings are accordingly disposed off.

Pronounced in the Commission on this 31st day of January, 2012.
