Commission had come to the conclusion that there are no reasons for the Opponent to withhold the disclosure of the marks obtained by the first 50 ranks. However due to error the word “rank” has been omitted in the operative part of the Order. Infact the Commission was of the opinion that the marks obtained by the first 50 candidates in the order of merit are to be provided to the Complainant. The Opponent vide his letter dated 5-09-2007 had also informed, the Complainant that he has no objection for providing the marks of the first 50 ranks if the Commission so direct.

3. We, therefore, hereby direct the Opponent to provide list of the marks of the first 50 ranks that is in the order of merits within a week’s time. We are not inclined to grant the other prayers of the complainant as the same will amount to review or modify the Order of the Commission for which the Commission has no power under the Right to Information Act, 2005.

4. Complaint stands disposed off accordingly. Announced in the open court on 22 November 2007
